Description: Country House with riding school "Equitazione & Buona Tavola" Gubbio

The Country House "Equitazione & Buona Tavola" is situated in Umbria on a hill above Gubbio at a height of 700 metres. Open throughout the year, this fully refurbished cottage gives visitors the opportunity to enjoy a holiday in the quietness of the Umbrian hills and woods, contact with animals and complete relaxation. Traditional dishes of the Gubbio area, are cooked in the wood burning oven and home made delicacies are available, even honey. The fine cuisine is accompanied by excellent wines carefully selected: such as Nebbiolo and Trebbiano. The Country House also includes an important breeding and riding centre of Quarter Horses where even the first horse riding experience can be enjoyed.

The Country House is an ideal meeting point between the beautiful nature offered by the suggestive Umbrian hillside where traditional agriculture is still practiced, and the artistic wealth of the numerous nearby towns such as Gubbio, Assisi, Trevi, Todi, Perugia, Spoleto, Orvieto and so forth.

The adjacent forests and trails offer an uncontaminated environment while still being relatively close to all services and principle lines of communication and transportation.

Guests reside in a completely restored antique stone country house. The 9 bedrooms, while still maintaining their original flavour are finely decorated and furnished with all necessities; autonomous heating, telephone, and television. All except two bedrooms have their own bathroom facilities.

In the main area, in a rustic and hospitable environment, the guests can relax while enjoying the traditional specialties. The family- run business offers the genuine typical Gubbio cuisine compiled from its own production and cultivation. The meals are prepared in the traditional manner in the wood burning oven.

And for those of you with a sweet tooth, we produce our own natural delicious honey. Who knows if by asking the owners for a "secret recipe" you may return home with a sweet souvenir!!!

Equitazione & Buona Tavola is situated in the centre of an uncontaminated area and thanks to it's positioning in the Umbrian hillside, it offers a wide range of "naturalistic" activities.

Available activities

- Nature walks with an encounter with nature at 360 degrees.
- Mountain bike rental
- Outdoor swimming pool
- Horse back riding: The Quarter Horse is also an important Quarter Horse breeding center. This will allow you, if you are a horse back riding novice, to come into contact with these beautiful animals for the first time. Or on the other hand, to be able to enjoy long walks or treks with them as your companions.
- If, however, you enjoy growing organic products, we have also thought of you; there is in fact the possibility to partake in the daily chores, to see first hand the homemade production to understand the secrets and tricks of the local "farmer".
